EVENING SEMINAR

With:

Felicity Gerry Q.C.

Facebook as a Forensic Tool

The Northern Territory Branch of the Australian & New Zealand Association of Psychiatry, Psychology and Law (ANZAPPL) is delighted to announce an evening seminar with guest speaker Felicity Gerry Q.C.

Come join us for what promises to be an evening with a stimulating guest speaker, good food and wine and networking opportunities.

SPEAKER: Felicity Gerry Q.C.:

Felicity was appointed Queen's Counsel in 2014 after 20 years at the criminal Bar in England and Wales. She has been recognised in the Legal 500 as a "Fearless and effective advocate" and "Tenacious in court" and "An expert in the field of sex offences". At the independent Bar, Felicity has prosecuted and defended in numerous cases involving major, serious and complex crime, often with an international element and commonly involving vulnerable people. Her significant trial and appellate experience has also led to an expertise in online offending. She is co-author of The Sexual Offences Handbook. Since 2013, Felicity has also held a research active post in the School of Law at Charles Darwin University, is the Chair of the Research and Research Training Committee and lectures in crime, evidence, torts and practical advocacy.

TOPIC: Facebook as a Forensic Tool

This presentation will provide an insight into the uses and abuses of social media in the courtroom including when to and how to search for evidence. Felicity will use real case examples to illustrate. It will provide insight to those working or involved in this difficult area.
